

My Special Place

My special place is a place that I go to every year. The place is a hotel that my Aunt and Uncle own. When we go there, we are sometimes the only people there so we can play hide and go seek. The place is called The Hearthstone Inn. The Hearthstone Inn is in Cedarville, Ohio. The place is bigger and much better than you would expect. Upstairs there is a game room, and my cousin's house is not far away so he gets his projector and his Xbox and we go in a private room and play Xbox with the projector on the big screen. It is awesome. My cousins and I like to play tag. This year my cousin Jonathan took me and my other cousin Samantha to an airplane museum and we saw the Blackbird. One thing I love is when I wake up I go out of my room and see all my cousins eating breakfast and I love the feeling that I am there. They serve only breakfast which is hardboiled eggs, juices, biscuits, cinnamon rolls, bagels and more.
